TOTAL LOSS DEMANDS
TOTAL PROTECTION

Royal Guard Vehicle Loss Assist: Your assurance that a total loss from theft or collision is totally covered.

Myth: You have insurance and you have gap protection. That will cover all your costs if your car is a total loss from theft or collision.

Reality: Even with insurance and gap protection, you could still have substantial expenses. That's because your gap protection covers the difference between what your primary coverage pays and the lease or loan payoff. Gap protection does not cover inception expenses for a new lease or loan. That leaves you without a car or with significant out-of-pocket expenses to initiate a new lease or loan.

Vehicle Loss Assist offers you added protection in the event of a total loss

WHAT VEHICLE LOSS ASSIST IS:

It's added protection that wraps around the gap coverage included in your lease or loan to offer you more protection from financial loss.

WHY YOU NEED IT:

Vehicle Loss Assist fills the gap left by your existing gap coverage. While gap protection helps pay off the lease on your stolen or totaled vehicle, Vehicle Loss Assist helps you get a new one by defraying down payment and inception costs.

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT:

If you suffer a total loss, Vehicle Loss Assist will give you $2500 in the event your insurance company does not satisfy your loan in full.

Programs vary by dealer/lender/state. Please refer to your Vehicle Loss Assist waiver for details of the terms and conditions of coverages.
